Friends, Westerwomen, Strangers,
Lend me your ears, and hear me
for my cause.
The Song I come to speak about is the Great Santa Claus.
'Tis good for every purpose,
For which a song is needed,
And joy will bring to every clime
Who has wise counsel heeded
And spent a nickel, just to prove
What wonders it will do,
To lighten labor, save expense
And make things bright and new.

THE FINEST
Spring Overcoats
NEW THINGS IN Boys' Wear

A little in advance of the season for such an elegant line of Spring Overcoats, but as trade winners ours will occupy first place—we're not too modest to say that for beauty, style, and finish they have no equal. We have used all the newest and noblest kind of materials, such as a custom tailor would show. The fashioning you'll find perfect, and the prices for such nobby coats are remarkably cheap, you'll say.

Mothers' and children's exception day, and lots and lots of new things to be seen in boys' wear—beautiful Suits and Overcoats in our new spring designs. The most extensive line of Shirt Waists you ever laid eyes on—plain, pleated, and ruffled bosoms, plain cuffs, and cuffs to turn back—collars 4 inches in width—in plain and fancy figured percales and ginghams.

Spring Derby Hats $2.50 to $5.00. Many novelties in small boys' wear.

$5.00 buys a splendid make of Shoe we can highly recommend.

A FLORIDA LEGEND

THE SHARING OF PROFITS.

A STORY OF
NEW YORK LIFE.
By W. D. Howells.

Begins in Harper's Weekly published March 28th. The hero, a middle-aged Bostonian, who was a leading character in "Their Wedding Journey," taken up by the conditions in the metropolis as editor of a co-operative bi-monthly magazine. The ups and downs of this literary enterprise give to the story the veracity of a very impressible mirror and the suggestion of the "A Hazard of New Fortunes." The story is illustrated by W. A. Rogers.
